

The Brain & Behavior Research Foundation is the largest non-governmental, donor-supported organization that distributes funds for brain and behavior disorder research. The Foundation's BBRF Distinguished Investigator Grant Program offers up to $100,000 for a one-year period and is intended for established scientists who maintain peer reviewed competitively funded scientific programs.

APPLICANT INFORMATION

Contact Information (Please fill out all relevant information below):

Principal Investigator (Full Name):

Position Title (E.g. Full Professor or equivalent):

Institution (E.g. Columbia University):

Institutional Affiliations:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Please identify all BBRF Scientific Council Members who will be in conflict with your application (E.g. collaborators, same institution etc.):

*Completed list of members can be found HERE. If there are no conflicts, please list none.

Distinguished Investigator Grant (Continued)

APPLICATION & AREA OF STUDY INFORMATION

The BBRF Distinguished Investigator Grant program supports basic and/or clinical investigator. However, research must be relevant to addiction, ADHD, anxiety, autism, bipolar disorder, borderline personality disorder, depression, eating disorders, OCD, PTSD, schizophrenia, as well as research in suicide prevention.

Area of Study & Research Methods (Please list up to 8 Key Words):

Trans-diagnostic designs involving several disorders are welcome. Some disorders such as Alzheimer's disease and Parkinson's disease are supported by BBRF but only if primary psychiatric disorders listed above are included in the research design and the proposal emphasizes the work's impact on our understanding of brain and behavior disorders. Please clarify and explain how your project and, if appropriate, the study population fit the Foundation's mission. (250-word limit):

Budget Requirement - Please find more information on Award Requirement #3

Total Budget Request (including overhead 8% Maximum, not to exceed $100,000.00 USD):

Overhead Total (Excluding Equipment):

Grants & Contracts/Sponsored Research Office: Institutional Signature (signifies the applicant's institution's acceptance and acknowledgment of these guidelines):